Rusty,

A letter went out earlier this week to Jay S. re Covington and a historical review. The letter lists some performance requirements that were outlined at a meeting i attended early this week.

I was just advised by Jim Petro that the "requirements" i was told to include in the letter are NOT cast in stone.

Before anybody reacts to the recommendations, i would suggest that you return to the planning board as a discussion item to review the issues.

Per Jim Petro, you will be on the agenda next wednesday 11/13 at the end of the meeting. Please try to come up with some ideas to lessen the impact (control on building colors, screening, etc that can also be discussed). You DO NOT have to have plans in in advance, you are on only for discussion of this issue.

I will ask Myra to include you as a discussion item on the published agenda.

Please email confirmation that your received this note.

Thanks

mark
